Online Talking Stick Sessions

"How might we... create a safe learning environment for students in online learning activities, in which they feel encouraged to communicate their experiences, ideas and questions?"

Talking stick principles:
- You are the person talking
- Everyone else has to listen
- Physical emphasis
- https://bit.ly/3gX8fK6

"Whoever holds the talking stick has within his hands the sacred power of words"

"acknowledgement"

"sharing"

"interaction"

"connecting"

"helping each other"

"inspiration"

Phase 1 - Understanding relevance of interactive learning and a safe learning space

Phase 5 - Joining in on weekly "Talking stick" activity. When you have the stick, you can share your experience. The others will fill in the Grid

Phase 2 - Applying learned theories on teaching into their internship practice

Phase 6 - Discuss what the listeners filled in the Grid

Phase 3 - Reflecting on experiences during internship and choosing which experience they want to share in the Talking Stick Session

Phase 4 - Showing your talking stick to your classmates to indicate you have something to share

Created by:
Nynke de Jong, Utrecht University
Tamara van Woezik, Radboud University Nijmegen